Annual Report
OF THE
BOARD OF EDUCATION,
FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 1, 1896.

It is very pleasant for your committee to report, that they think they were successful in hiring teachers possessing the characteristics necessary to success in the school room, and farther, that scarcely any friction from any source has occurred during the year.

We appreciate this support, but we wish all would do what a few do.

We think we are assured in saying that many have studied outside of school hours, and are equally positive that the rest have not done so.

There is no way in which a teacher can be better supported than by the parents taking a direct interest in the pupils' lessons, by taking part in those lessons, through questions that show you are interested in them, and that aim for thoroughness and development of the mental powers. You may say, I have not time; how can others who are equally busy do so? Why we emphasize this point so emphatically, is because there is no one thing that will do more to advance the standard of the schools.

We question whether there is any one thing that will further advance the property interest of a town, than the proficiency of the public school. It is to its schools that the Anglo-Saxon race owes its present supremacy.

The Turnpike school, with Miss Staniels, and South Lee, with Miss Hale, have done very excellent work. They belong to that class of teachers whose work does not stop with the recitations, but aims to develop those elements in a pupil's character that will make them the noblest men and women. Miss Hill, who had charge of the Lee Hill school the first and second terms, is another thorough, energetic worker, as shown by her scholars. Miss Wigley taught the Winter term.

We respectfully call your attention now to other district affairs that demand your attention.

The Turnpike school house is commencing to leak, so to disfigure the plastering and is liable to soon loosen it.

On parts of the South Lee school house the paint is nearly all off. The inside walls and ceiling are very dirty, and need whitewashing badly. The removal of a few rocks from the school house grounds would make it seem very much less like the dumping ground of the glacial period.

And now what shall we say of the school house in the Center,—won't some of you tell us? Townsmen! can we, as intelligent men, and women, permit this matter to continue any longer? It is for you to say, not us. We believe there is ample common sense in the district to settle this question if rightly used. We put it plainly. Don't let personal interest outweigh public benefits.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.

The Trustees are pleased to report a continued and steady interest in the Public Library. The appropriation has been so small heretofore they have found it difficult to choose from the great variety offered. We have been kindly remembered by friends the past year, perhaps not in such large measure as before, but all favors are thankfully received. The steady growth is very gratifying.

From some unknown reason the books selected for the past year's appropriation have not been received in season to be catalogued.
